

Sowing the seeds of success

A large-scale initiative of watermelon growth testing was launched in the schools of the Homiel region in Belarus thanks to EU support. During six months, the pupils, together with teachers and local enthusiasts, explored how successfully this beloved round fruit can take root in the south of the country.