THEME: #ADecadeOfAction

The third FIA Women in Motorsport Seminar draws us together, not only to reflect on the progress made over a decade of action but to explore actions for the future. It has been an exciting and progressive journey which is starting to reap rich rewards as more females are introduced to the world of motor sport and others are being given equal opportunities to prove their ability. Assessing what has been achieved to date will guide and shape our future as we look towards the next decade of support for women in the sport.
